Standard Chartered Bank - Electronic Banking Terms and Conditions

Please read these terms and conditions carefully.

These terms and conditions set out the rights and obligations of you, the customer, and us, the Bank, in connection with your use of the Service. All the terms and conditions of this agreement are legally binding, so please read them through

This agreement:

- is in addition to the terms and conditions that apply to the individual accounts you may be accessing through the Service. If there is a conflict between the terms and conditions of this agreement and any other relevant terms and conditions, the terms and conditions of this agreement will prevail; and
- relates only to individual accounts in your sole name (Eligible Accounts).

In the last section of this agreement, you will find definitions of some of the words and phrases used in these terms and conditions.

1. THE ACCOUNTS ON WHICH YOU MAY USE THE SERVICES

1.1 By agreeing to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you agree that the Service will be available on all Eligible Accounts with us, whether open now or opened in the future. The Service cannot be used on some types of accounts and we will advise you from time to time as to which accounts are eligible.

1.2 In order to use the Service, you must be registered by us to use the Service.

2. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES FOR SECURITY

2.1 To ensure that you alone are able to access and give instructions on your accounts using the Service, you must adopt and at all times maintain all the following security procedures.

2.2 To enable you to use the Service, we will give you a user identification code and an initial password and you may then choose your own Password for the Service. These are your Security Codes and both will be used to identify you whenever you access the Service.

Safeguarding your Password and Security Codes

2.3 In connection with your Security Codes:

2.3.1 you should change your Password regularly and shall do so whenever the Service requires you to do so. You should not choose a Password you have used before;

2.3.2 whenever you choose a Password, you must take care not to choose a number that is likely to be guessed by anyone trying to access the Service pretending to be you. For example, you should avoid your own or a relative's birthday, or any part of your telephone number;

2.3.3 you must take all reasonable steps to ensure that you safeguard your Security Codes at all times, whenever possible. You must not disclose any details of your Password to anyone else, to a member of our staff, or to someone giving assistance on a technical helpdesk in connection with the Service;

2.3.4 you must not record your Security Codes in a way that could make them recognizable by someone else as Security Codes;

2.3.5 if you discover or suspect that your Password or any part of them are known to someone else, you must immediately change the Password yourself through the Service. If this is not possible, you must notify us immediately by telephoning us on 00977 1 4782333 (or any other number we may advise you from time to time for this purpose). We will suspend use of the Service until new Security Codes have been set up.

Checking your statements

2.4 If you become aware of any transaction on any of your accounts that has not been validly authorized by you, you must notify us immediately by telephoning us on 00977 1 4782333 (or any other number we may advise you from time to time for this purpose). For this purpose, you are reminded that you must, as is required of you for all your accounts, check all bank Statements for any unauthorized transactions.

Other security safeguards

2.5 You must not allow anyone else to operate the Service on your behalf.

2.6 You must not leave Your System unattended while you are on-line to the Service. This applies whether Your System is a device you have sourced independently of us or a device provided by us to access the Service in one of our branches. However, the public nature of our branches makes it particularly important that if you access the Service from a device in one of our branches you do not leave that device unattended while on-line and you ensure that you have gone off-line before leaving the branch.

2.7 You must not access the Service from any device connected to a local area network (or LAN), such as an office environment, without first making sure that no one else is able to observe or copy your access or obtain access to the Service pretending to be you.

2.8 You must comply with any other requirements designed to protect the security of your use of the Service which are notified by us to you in any other way.

3. YOUR AUTHORITY TO US TO CARRY OUT INSTRUCTIONS

3.1 You agree that the use of the Security Codes agreed between us for the Service is adequate identification of you. We are entitled to act on instructions (using the Security Codes via the Service) without obtaining any further written or other confirmation from you, even if those instructions are not actually given or authorised by you.

Your liability for unauthorized instructions

3.2 You will be liable for misuse of your Password by someone to give unauthorized instructions purporting to come from you.

3.3 You will be responsible and will be liable for any instruction that is not authorised by you but is given using your Security Codes

Acting on your instructions

3.4 You must not use the Service to create an unauthorized overdraft on any of your accounts and we are entitled to refuse to accept any instruction that would do so. If an unauthorized overdraft is created, we may take any action we think fit and charge any interest and charges to the account in question (in accordance with the terms and conditions of that account). You agree that:

- 3.4.1 it is your responsibility to make sure that no unauthorized overdrafts are created; and
- 3.4.2 you will not rely on the operation of the Service to prevent an unauthorized overdraft being created. In particular, you must remember that your cheques and any payment instructions you have given via the Service might take time to clear and might not always be immediately reflected in the balance on your account.
- 3.5 When we receive a transaction instruction from you through the Service, we will be entitled to debit any payment plus any charges payable for the transaction from the account you have specified. Once you have given an instruction through the Service, you will not be able to reverse it. We will be under no obligation:
- 3.5.1 to reverse an instruction you have given; or
- 3.5.2 to accept an instruction that is conditional or reversible or which requires us to pay a third party sooner than we would be able to pay them following our normal banking practices.
- 3.6 We may, when we believe we are justified in doing so:
- 3.6.1 refuse to carry out an instruction given via the Service; or
- 3.6.2 require written confirmation from you of a particular instruction.
- If we come to believe that an instruction may not have been properly authorised by you, we may, after making reasonable efforts to check whether it was properly authorised, take steps to reverse any action taken on the basis of that instruction. We will not be responsible for any loss to you that results from such a reversal.
- 3.7 When you give an instruction via the Service, we will act on that instruction in accordance with the cut-off times notified to you through the Service. From time to time we may notify you of changes to these cut-off times. Instructions given at any other time may not be acted on until the next Business day.

4. IF YOU HOLD ANY JOINT ACCOUNTS

The Service may not presently be used by you with joint accounts. If the Bank makes the Service so available it shall also make available the terms and conditions of use.

5. OPERATING TIMES, CHANGES AND DISRUPTIONS

- 5.1 We shall take reasonably practicable steps to have the Service be usually available for use. You accept, however, that routine maintenance requirements, excess demand on the systems and circumstances beyond our control may mean it is not always possible for the Service to be available during its normal operating hours.
- 5.2 In connection with the Service, we are entitled at any time to:
- 5.2.1 change the mode of operation; or
- 5.2.2 add to, remove or otherwise change, end or suspend any of the facilities available; or
- 5.2.3 end the Service.

If we decide to change or end the Service, we will try to give you 30 days notice or whatever shorter period of notice may be reasonable in the circumstances.

Protecting against Viruses

- 6.2 You must take all reasonably practicable measures to ensure that any computer or other device from which you access the Service is free of any computer virus or similar device or software including, without limitation, devices commonly known as software bombs, Trojan horses and worms (together "Viruses") and is adequately maintained in every way. The Service can be accessed through the Internet or other communication channels as the case may be, public systems over which we have no control. You must therefore ensure that any computer or other device you use to access the Service is adequately protected against acquiring Viruses.

Access through third party services

- 6.3 We cannot be responsible for any services through which you access the Service that are not controlled by us, or for any loss you may suffer as a result of you using such a service. You must comply with all the terms and conditions of such a service and pay all the charges connected with it.

Ownership rights in connection with the Service Software and other information

- 6.4 By supplying you with the Service Software to access the Service, we are granting you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, temporary licence to use the Service Software for the purpose of accessing the Service, and for no other purpose. The Service Software and all other material and information supplied to you contains valuable information that belongs to us or others. You must not:
- 6.4.1 use them except in connection with accessing the Service;
- 6.4.2 take copies, sell, assign, commercially rent, sub-license, otherwise transfer them to any third party; or
- 6.4.3 try to decompile, reverse engineer, input or compile any of the service Software.

- 7.2 We will not be liable for any loss or damage to you as a result of making the Service available to you, including any direct, indirect, consequential or special loss, even if we have been advised of the same. Examples of circumstances in which we will NOT be liable to you for loss or damage resulting to you through the use of the Service include (but are not limited to):
- 7.2.1 acting on an instruction which has been validly authenticated as coming from you but which in fact was given by somebody else (but please see sections 3.2 and 3.3 which explain the exceptions to this rule); and
- 7.2.2 any incompatibility between Your System and the Service; and
- 7.2.3 any machine, system or communications failure (except where such failure should have been prevented by the risks control and arrangement measures had we adopted such measures in accordance with clause 7.1), industrial dispute or other circumstances beyond our control that leads either to the Service being totally or partially unavailable or to instructions given via the Service not being acted upon promptly or at all; and
- 7.2.4 you relying on any financial information provided as part, or by means, of the Service; and
- 7.2.5 any misuse of Your System by you or anyone else; and
- 7.2.6 any access to information about your accounts which is obtained by a third party as a result of your using the Service.

- 7.3 In the event that we are liable for any loss or damage to you as a result of your use of the Service, we shall only be liable for direct loss or damage which, in the ordinary course of events, might reasonably be expected to result from the circumstances in question and only if such loss or damage is caused by our gross negligence or willful default.

Please note that the Service has no facility for you to let us know that it is especially important to you that a transaction is carried out by a particular time. If you need to be completely certain that an instruction has reached us and that it will be carried out by a particular time, you must speak to our staff on 00977 1 4782333.

- 7.4 You shall indemnify us, our employees and our nominees or agents promptly and on a full indemnity basis from or against all actions, omissions, negligence, proceedings, claims, demands, damages, losses (including direct, indirect or consequential losses), costs and expenses including all duties, taxes, or other levies and legal costs as between solicitor and client (on a full indemnity basis) and other liabilities which we may incur or suffer from or by reason of your use of the Service.

8. IF YOU BREAK A TERM OF THIS AGREEMENT

You must compensate us for any loss we suffer as a result of your breaking any term of this agreement.

9. ENDING YOUR USE OF THE SERVICE

- 9.1 You may cancel your use of the Service at any time by giving us written notice (or in any other way we notify you about from time to time).
- 9.2 If you have multiple accounts, you may not cancel the Service solely in respect of any one account, unless you are notified by us to the contrary in writing.
- 9.3 We have the right to end or suspend your use of the Service at any time. We will usually give you at least 30 days notice. However, we may give you a shorter period of notice or no notice if we consider it necessary, for example because of security concerns in connection with your use of the Service or because we are concerned that you have used or may use the Service to create an unauthorized overdraft or otherwise to operate any of your accounts in breach of your arrangements with us.
- 9.4 If your use of the Service comes to an end for any reason, this will not affect any instructions you have already given via the Service.

Once you have received notice of any change in the terms of this agreement, we will treat your subsequent use of the Service as your acceptance of the change (but please remember, you have the right to end your use of the Service at any time).
