STANDARD CHARTERED BRINGS JOHN BARNES TO ZIMBABWE

Harare, 10 March 2014 – John Barnes, a Liverpool legend, will be in Zimbabwe on Thursday 13th March 2014 for a two day visit. Standard Chartered Zimbabwe will be hosting a variety of events including a client cocktail and John Barnes will also get the opportunity to interact with local soccer academies and motivate some young soccer fans. He will participate in the practice/coaching sessions of AYSA soccer academy.

Standard Chartered Bank has been the main sponsor of Liverpool Football Club (LFC) since July 2010. The partnership allows the Bank access to some of the most successful players in football history, past and present, in order to create a host of unique experiences for customers and clients around the world.

Ralph Watungwa, CEO of Standard Chartered Bank Zimbabwe, commented “The Club has a similar heritage to us – over 100 years of history, strong values and a determination to give back to the local community. The visit by John Barnes to Zimbabwe is important in ensuring that the young and upcoming soccer stars are inspired.”

Standard Chartered Bank has partnered with LFC on a number of community initiatives. For example, over two thousand children have been taught football and life skills via joint soccer clinics around the world, thousands of people heard the Bank’s Living with HIV messages when they teamed up with the Club for World AIDS Day 2012, and millions of dollars have been raised for Seeing is Believing (SiB) via the Bank’s Perfect Match campaign, whereby LFC swapped the 'Standard Chartered' logo on their shirts for the 'SiB' logo for two matches.
